Every citizen of the United States of the age of eighteen years or over, who has been domiciled in the Bonnet Shores Fire District for thirty days next preceding the time of voting, and whose name shall be registered with the duly appointed Bonnet Shores Fire District Election Canvasser at least thirty days next preceding the time of voting, shall have the right to vote for all offices to be elected and on all questions submitted to the electors. As used herein, the term "domicile" shall have the same meaning as in Rhode Island General Laws §17-1-3.1, as may be amended from time to time.

In addition, every citizen of the United States of the age of eighteen years or over, who while not domiciled in the Bonnet Shores Fire District, has resided in a seasonal residence in the Bonnet Shores Fire District for ninety days in the twelve month period next preceding the time of voting, who is residing in said residence at the time of voting, and whose name shall be registered with the duly appointed Bonnet Shores Fire District Election Canvasser at least thirty days next preceding the time of voting, shall have the right to vote for all offices to be elected and on all questions submitted to the electors. As used herein, "residence" shall have its ordinary meaning, and shall mean a location for which a certificate of occupancy has been issued by the applicable local agency.

6.) All such persons qualified to vote who wish to vote shall vote in person or personally by such
-     other means as may be approved by the Bonnet Shores Fire District Council; no person may vote on behalf of another person.